Thank you for worshiping with us today!

“Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest.”
 These words of comfort were spoken to the multitude that followed Jesus. The Saviour had said that only through Himself could men receive a knowledge of God. He had spoken of His disciples as the ones to whom a knowledge of heavenly things had been given. But He left none to feel themselves shut out from His care and love. All who labor and are heavy-laden may come unto Him..”
