

Now, Dear Lord, As We Pray

Now, dear Lord, as we pray,
Take our hearts and minds far away
From the press of the world all around
To You Throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your Love,
May our souls be refreshed from above,
At this moment, let people everywhere Join us
now we come to You in prayer.

"The Resurrection of Moses"

Memory Text:

"Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, 'The Lord rebuke you!'" (Jude 1:9, NKJV).

Tetapi penghulu malaikat, Mikhael, ketika dalam suatu perselisihan bertengkar dengan Iblis mengenai mayat Musa, tidak berani menghakimi Iblis itu dengan kata-kata hujatan, tetapi berkata: "Kiranya Tuhan menghardik engkau!" Yudas 1:9 (TB)

"The True Witness desires to remedy the perilous condition in which His professed people are placed, and he says: . . . (Revelation 2:4-5) Christ will cease to take the names of those who fail to turn to him and do their first works, and will no longer make intercession for them before the Father. He says (Revelation 3:15-18) Though the professed followers of Christ are in a deplorable condition, they are not yet in so desperate a strait as were the foolish virgins whose lamps were going out, and there was no time in which to replenish their vessels with oil. When the bridegroom came, those that were ready went in with him to the wedding; but when the foolish virgins came, the door was shut, and they were too late to obtain an entrance. But the counsel of the True Witness does not represent those who are lukewarm as in a hopeless case. There is yet a chance to remedy their state, and the Laodicean message is full of encouragement; for the backslidden church may yet buy the gold of faith and love, may yet have the white robe of the righteousness of Christ, that the shame of their nakedness need not appear. Purity of heart, purity of motive, may yet characterize those who are half-hearted and who are striving to serve God and Mammon. They may yet wash their robes of character and make them white in the blood of the Lamb." {RH, August 28, 1894 par. 3}

Today the question is to come home to every heart, Do you believe in the Son of God? The question is not, Do you admit that Jesus is the Redeemer of the world? and that you should repeat to your soul and to others, "Believe, believe, all you have to do is to believe;" but, Do you have practical faith in the Son of God, so that you bring Him into your life and character until you are one with Him? Many accept of the theory of Christ, but they make it manifest by their works that they do not know Him as the Saviour who died for the sins of men, who bore the penalty of their transgression, in order that they might be brought back to their loyalty to God, and through the merits of a crucified and risen Saviour, might find acceptance with God in their obedience to His law. Christ died to make it possible for you to cease to sin, and sin is the transgression of the law. {RH, August 28, 1894 par. 4}
