

Now, Dear Lord, As We Pray

Now, dear Lord, as we pray,
Take our hearts and minds far away
From the press of the world all around
To You Throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your Love,
May our souls be refreshed from above,
At this moment, let people everywhere Join us now we come to You in prayer.

Kusiapkan Hatiku Tuhan

Kusiapkan Hatiku Tuhan
Tuk dengar Firman-Mu saat ini Ku sujud menyembah-Mu Tuhan Masuk hadirat-Mu saat
ini

Curahkan urapan-Mu Tuhan Bagi jemaat-Mu
saat ini Kusiapkan Hatiku Tuhan Tuk dengar Firman-mu

Firman-Mu Tuhan tiada berubah
Dahulu sekarang selama-lamanya tiada berubah
Firman-Mu Tuhan penolong hidupku
Kusiapkan hatiku Tuhan tuk dengar Firman-Mu

"Jesus, The Anchor of the Soul"

Memory Text:

"This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both secure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil, where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become High Priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek" (Hebrews 6:19, 20, NKJV).

"Pengharapan itu adalah sauh yang kuat dan aman bagi jiwa kita, yang telah dilabuhkan sampai ke belakang tabir, di mana Yesus telah masuk sebagai Perintis bagi kita, ketika Ia, menurut peraturan Melkisedek, menjadi Imam Besar sampai selamanya." (Ibrani 6:19,20, TB)

We are in the great day of atonement, when our sins are, by confession and repentance, to go beforehand to Judgment. God does not now accept a tame, spiritless testimony from his ministers. Such a testimony would not be present truth. The message for this time must be meat in due season to feed the church of God. But Satan has been seeking gradually to rob this message of its power, that the people may not be prepared to stand in the day of the Lord. {RH, March 22, 1887 par. 8}

In 1844 our great High Priest entered the most holy place of the heavenly Sanctuary, to begin the work of the investigative Judgment. The cases of the righteous dead have been passing in review before God. When that work shall be completed, judgment is to be pronounced upon the living. How precious, how important are these solemn moments! Each of us has a case pending in the court of heaven. We are individually to be judged according to the deeds done in the body. In the typical service, when the work of atonement was performed by the high priest in the most holy place of the earthly sanctuary, the people were required to afflict their souls before God, and confess their sins, that they might be atoned for and blotted out. Will any less be required of us in this antitypical day of atonement, when Christ in the Sanctuary above is pleading in behalf of his people, and the final, irrevocable decision is to be pronounced upon every case? {RH, March 22, 1887 par. 9}

We must no longer remain upon the enchanted ground. We are fast approaching the close of our probation. Let every soul inquire, How do I stand before God? We know not how soon our names may be taken into the lips of Christ, and our cases be finally decided. What, oh, what will these decisions be! Shall we be counted with the righteous, or shall we be numbered with the wicked? {RH, March 22, 1887 par. 11}
