Catholic Plan to Evangelize Seventh day Adventists

PROJECT

"The Most Coveted Sectarian Group"

Central point: "The evangelization of Seventh day Adventists with the true message of the Catholic Church is the return of Protestants to Rome" states the greatest goal of the Catholic Church for the return of Protestants to Rome

PURPOSE

- 1 To instill ideas and projects among the Adventists, which will help to foster a closer Catholic-Adventist relationship
 - 2 To make concessions to bring the Catholic way of thinking among Adventists
 - 3 To see and analyze common evangelization objectives with Seventh-day Adventists
 - 4 To remove the erroneous paradigms Adventists have about the Roman Catholic Church
 - 5 To show Seventh-day Adventists that their origin as a church has no biblical foundation
 - 6 To show Seventh day Adventists that the writings of Ellen White are false
 - 7 To show Seventh-day Adventists how damaging (dangerous) to world peace is their position regarding the Pope, the Virgin Mary and Sunday as the day of rest
 - 8 To let Seventh-day Adventists know that their church has the highest record of apostasy among Protestants, due to the theological differences among them
 - 9 To unmask before the world the steps that the Adventist Church has taken, through its bona fide leaders, towards Catholics and ecumenism
- To make Seventh-day Adventists understand that if they do not unite with Catholics and Protestants to seek world peace, they will be guilty of all the evils and/or disasters that come upon the earth
